NOTE.—By an oversight the selectmen have not required the tax collector to give in the amount of discount on taxes for the years 1893–94–95, and so it has not shown in the reports, as there was no real settlement with the collector. A committee appointed for the purpose found the financial standing of the town was practically as reported, but the interest and discount on taxes did not show. So to square up with the collector an order was given him by the selectmen for the three years' discount, which amounts to $823.23, for which there was not a cent of money changed hands, but of course makes the total amount of orders drawn just that much larger, and comes under the head of abatements. The amount due from collector Feb. 15, 1896, should have been that amount larger.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

FOR YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 15, 1897.

At the annual district meeting of 1896, Jasper P. George was re-elected a member of the school board for three years, and Mary E. Manning was elected the treasurer of the district for the ensuing year.

At the annual organization, Mary E. Manning was elected president, with Jasper P. George as secretary.

The same method that has been used in former years, for furnishing supplies and special supervision, has been pursued in the year just closed, it having been found to be the best yet devised to accomplish the desired result.

During the year, report cards of attendance, deportment, and scholarship have been procured and their use adopted, to incite a worthy ambition among the pupils, and induce them to put forth their best endeavors to obtain a high standing. We conclude by the results obtained during the last two terms, since the cards were introduced, that the idea of adopting this method was a wise one.

Thirty weeks' tuition has been furnished each school except Nos. 1 and 7 (one week is owing each); in the other schools any lacking at the beginning of the year has been supplied.

At the beginning of the winter term, we found only two pupils belonging to No. 6 who would attend school; we therefore sent them to No. 1, and omitted any session there. Several of our school divisions contain so few pupils that the expense per scholar is very high. This could be obviated, in a measure, by judicious consolidation whenever the inhabitants of the district realize the advantage to the scholars rather than the maintenance of schoolhouses as the desirable result to be attained, and act accordingly.

The success which has attended the labors of the several teachers has been as varied, almost, as their individuality.

Our experience tends to show that some teachers have the faculty of so impressing the minds of their pupils that great interest is immediately and persistently developed to carry out the wishes and plans made known to them, while other would-be teachers fail for want of tact and ability to influence their pupils in right methods and towards desirable ends. This has been the measure of the success attained during the year. The teachers whom we have had, especially during the last term, have been very successful, and the results are found very desirable and satisfactory. We believe that the right kind of teachers are necessary to reach the best results, even when obtained at a large salary, while others are high-priced at a meager one. Dollars and cents should not be the criterion, but rather the faculty of teaching, which is born in some, and acquired but to a degree by others.

We have employed, during the year, sixteen different teachers, mostly those of experience, of whom Misses Parkhurst, Huntoon, Moore, Morison, Hutchinson, and Chase have taught, throughout the year, with credit and success. Of these, Misses Huntoon and Hutchinson had no previous experience as teachers. Miss Woodbury was secured to finish the fall term and to teach during the winter term at No. 7, and has brought order with attending results, satisfactory in every way, out of a chaotic state of affairs; also Miss Ayer at No. 2 has restored order and studious habits, which had suffered a relapse. Ill health compelled the retirement of Miss Holbrook (C. E.), at least for a time, and thereby we lost an excellent instructor. Her place at No. 9 was supplied by Evelyn A. Stevens, who proved herself capable and successful. This was her first experience as a public teacher.

We were able to secure Miss Tuttle at No. 2 only for one term. The good progress which could but be expected under her tuition was achieved.

According to the annual enumeration of the children of school age in the town, there are 83 boys and 81 girls; 164 in all.

The school registers of the year show that nine pupils have not been absent or tardy. They are: Alice L. Barnard, Gertrude M. Lane, Ephraim V. Fosher, Frank J. Darrah, Helen H. Gooch, Malcolm E. Hoyt, Wayland F. Walch, Maurice E. Stowell, and Charles Lewis Stowell.

Below will be found tables showing the names of such pupils as have attained a rank in deportment and scholarship of 90 per cent and 80 per cent, which stand for "Excellent" and "Good," during the two terms such reports have been in use. In absence of any definite rule, each teacher marked as seemed best and right, and we find a wide range of marking; more, we think, than appears in recitations in the different schools. We intend to adopt a more uniform method of marking in the future.

Barring incidental repairs, the houses are in fair condition, we having used the amount appropriated for that object. An equal amount is respectfully solicited for the coming year.

We have procured, in place of the geographies in use at the beginning of the year, a sufficient number of Barnes's geographies, of two grades, to supply immediate needs; also a limited number of Frye's Introductory, to test their adaptability to our grade of schools.

We hope that the district will so recognize the desirability of our being able to obtain a high grade of teachers for the coming year that the amount granted the board may be sufficient to accomplish the desired result.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

At the annual town meeting of 1896, Eddy W. Stevens was re-elected a trustee of the library for a term of three years. In addition to the amount of money required by law to be raised and used for the benefit of the library, enough was appropriated to make the full amount one hundred and twenty-five dollars and sixty cents.

The trustees received the gift of a large framed picture of the best-known authors of America, and placed it upon the walls of the library, it being a present from Robert S. Ormsby, Esq., as also donations of books from Mrs. Frances E. Woodbury and John A. Riddle, Esq., for the circulating library, and from Messrs. George B. and Henry Chandler of Manchester for the reference department during the past two years, also a copy of the History of Bedford, N. H., 1750 to 1850, from Mrs. Isaac C. Cutler, the receipt of which is duly acknowledged.

The librarian, Jasper P. George, has during the year catalogued the books of reference upon the shelves and presents a separate list. We tender thanks for the valuable books received and solicit further gifts from friends interested enough to donate them. We particularly desire, volume number seven of Provincial Papers, as well as Macaulay's History of England, volumes one and three, and Bancroft's History of the United States, volume one, to complete existing sets.

The bookcase in use having been well filled, a new one was procured to hold future purchases and gifts.

The whole number of books in the circulating department is five hundred and twenty-seven, and in the reference department forty-eight.

It was thought best to add to this report a complete catalogue of all the books belonging to the library. Keep this torn report and so secure a complete catalogue to date. All these books are upon the shelves or accounted for.

Herewith the treasurer presents his report of the receipts and expenditures for the year. It is hoped that a liberal appropriation may be bestowed, and by judicious selection, books, interesting and instructive, may be added to those already possessed.

Respectfully submitted.
